The women began their night with a delicious meal prepared by Sheila Burke, Jan Watson, and Francis Dodson. A little social time was shared by all and then the meeting began with the group singing “This Little Light of Mine” led by Ann Bland. Wally Bonnewitz read the scriptures Psalm 32:1-8 and a prayer given by Jan Coxwell. The minutes were read by Debbie Edwards. A motion was made to approve and Jan Watson second it.

OLD BUSINESS

Jan Watson reported that Leanne Fink does Paint Your Own Scarf. Jan will see if she would like to come to a UMW meeting and help us create a scarf. Jan will get further information for the next meeting. She will also be checking on the Dandelion Meadow speaker.

Jan Coxwell reported that Sight and Sound had nothing available now. We will plan for later in the year and it is open to invite friends to join us for a fun day trip.

There will be a movie night on March 10th at 5:30 for all. “War Room” will be the featured movie. There will be child care for the evening. Pizza and drinks will be provided. Asking all to RSVP so we have the correct amount of pizza. Ann is in charge of getting the food. Janalee will do advertising, Sheila is getting the movie, and Jan Coxwell will find child care.

Wonder

The Same Kind as Me

The Shack

Debbie will be calling Blooming Hill Lavender Farm in Philomont, VA to find out the time they have their spring tea so we can join in on that event.

NEW BUSINESS

Missions:

Jan Coxwell listed all the mission activities we have done in the past. It was decided to focus on 3 events in addition to the ones we already help.

We heard about a new mission being done in Bluemont called GOT SNEAKERS. We also have decided to do this project and collect lightly used and clean sneakers of all sizes until the 3rd Sunday of April. This helps support children, teens and adults.

Our next event is our Music Night held on the third Saturday of May. This year it will be a different type of venue.

The third event is Gail May's mission she found called A Farm Less Ordinary. More information to come on this.

HOSPITALITY

Monica welcomed Janalee Coxwell to our meeting. Monica will be sending cards out for support in whatever may be happening with our church members. She is asking us all to let her know when a card is needed and the address.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Sheila gave the treasurer's report. Each member was called and she received and blessed the dues. She reported a balance of $1322 in the account.

MISCELLANEOUS

Ann said that the ladies from Willisville hope to be with us at the next meeting. A few of the ladies were ill and could not make it to this meeting.

Continuation of miscellaneous

A light meal will be served by Jan Coxwell, Debbie, and Wally for the next meeting.

The UMW program book was presented and members will be deciding when they will present one of the lessons.
