Ann Bland

The meeting began with the group singing “This Little Light of Mine” led by Ann Bland. Ann read the scriptures Psalm 100 and a prayer given by Debbie Edwards. The minutes were read by Debbie Edwards. A motion was made to approve and all approved it. The women then enjoyed a delicious meal. A little social time was shared by all.

OLD BUSINESS

We will have to cancel our painting of the sun catchers. Not enough interest at this time.

Debbie reported that Tea time at Blooming Hill will be July 26 for a full tea.

The Night of Music was a success. Great food, music and all the mission goals were closely met.

Fancy Flea really needs to be advertised well. Janalee will be in charge of that. A new flyer is being made as the date has changed to Aug. 4. There will be a charge of $25.00 for a table and not charging the 10%. The quilt is going to be a silent auction item during Christmas in Middleburg. Proceeds will go to Backpack Buddies. All will help to clean up after the sale.

Ann reported that we did 41 health kits to be sent to the Annual Conference. The minister will be taking them.

Monica belongs to a Bible Study and said it was going well. There will be another gathering in July.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Sheila gave the treasurer's report. Each member was called and she received and blessed the dues. We received $70. She reported a balance of $1326 in the account. All approved. The Night of Music brought in money for each mission as follows: Angel tree - $435.00, Backpack Buddies - $460.00 and Red Bird Mission - $431.00. We sent $500 to Red Bird Mission. $41.00 was sent to Annual Conference for health kits. $208.69.00 went to Jan Coxwell to send back items to Red Bird Mission. $180.00 and $64.50 went to Gail Mail. $223.00 went to Jan Coxwell for supplies.

HOSPITALITY

We ask that Monica send cards to Jane Deane and Wanda Hemby.

NEW BUSINESS

Monica wants to start having ladies of the church meeting for fun, movies, and games, etc. The time will be noon. They will organize who will be bringing food for the gathering. The first one will be June 27 at Monica's home. There will be a movie. It is encouraged to bring a friend.
